Montana Tech to Receive $65,764 in Acce$$ Grant Funds

Montana Tech of The University of Montana will receive $65,764 in Acce$$ Grant funds from nonprofit Student Assistance Foundation (SAF) on Thursday, Nov. 18. Since 2000, the school has received $425,469 through this program.

Financial Aid Director Mike Richardson and Vice-chancellor for Development and Student Services and President of the Montana Tech Foundation Mike Johnson will accept the award on behalf of the school from SAF's Grants Manager Darbie Hess and Campus Outreach Manager Schylar Canfield-Baber. The presentation will take place at half time at the Orediggers' men's basketball game against Minot State University at Kelvin Sampson Court.

Acce$$ Grants are awarded each year by SAF through financial aid offices at all Montana postsecondary schools, including tribal and private institutions, and two-year and four-year schools. The amount awarded to each school is determined by enrollment numbers. Financial aid officers use the grants to help students in need pay for their education. Individual award amounts vary by individual and are determined by the financial aid office.

This year, the total award amount being distributed to colleges and universities is $1.25 million, bringing the grand total of Acce$$ funds provided by SAF since the program's inception in 2000 to $8.2 million.

Student Assistance Foundation is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit Montana corporation that provides students with knowledge and tools to finance and pursue their postsecondary education. Funds generated by SAF are returned to Montanans in the form of education grants and public benefit programs - to date more than $19.6 million.
