Montana Tech to Receive $65,764 in Acce$$ Grant Funds from SAF

Montana Tech of The University of Montana will receive $65,764 in Acce$$ Grant funds from nonprofit Student Assistance Foundation (SAF) on Saturday, Aug. 27. Since 2000, the school has received $491,223 through this program.

Montana Tech Chancellor Donald Blacketter and Financial Aid Director Mike Richardson will accept the award on behalf of the school from SAF's Vice President of Foundation Activities Kelly Cresswell, Grants Manager Darbie Hess and Campus Outreach Manager Schylar Canfield-Baber. The check will be presented during half time at Alumni Field at the Montana Tech versus Southern Oregon University football game.

Acce$$ Grants are awarded each year by SAF through financial aid offices at all Montana postsecondary schools, including tribal and private institutions, and two-year and four-year schools. The amount awarded to each school is determined by enrollment numbers. Financial aid officers use the grants to help students in need pay for their education. Individual award amounts vary by individual and are determined by the financial aid office.

This year, the total award amount being distributed to colleges and universities is $1.25 million, bringing the grand total of Acce$$ funds provided by SAF since the program's inception in 2000 to $9.47 million.

Student Assistance Foundation is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit Montana corporation that provides students with knowledge and tools to pursue and fund their postsecondary education. Funds generated by SAF are returned to Montanans in the form of education grants and public benefit programs - to date more than $22.4 million.
